GEO. CROSS SIGN WORLD COACH

By JIM COOK

George Cross have signed world-class coach Branko Sekulic, a 50-year-old Yugoslavian.

George Cross officials are arranging an air passage for Sekulic to get him here in the next few weeks.

The club has been negotiating with Sekulic through FIFA for several months.

And the world Soccer controlling body have highly recommended him.

Sekulic, a top class player, represented Yugoslavia 53 times in International matches which took him to almost every country in the world.

Since his playing days, he has had spells as National coach of both Yugoslavia and Switzerland as well as coaching top club sides in Belgium and Switzerland.

Married with three children, it's extremely doubtful if he would have considered leaving Europe where his services have been in high demand but for one special reason.

One of his daughters suffers from asthma and this enduced Sekulic to sign up with George Cross and come to Australia.

I believe Sekulic's services will cost George Cross a pretty penny and probably a figure which has not been exceeded previously by any other Australian club.

My guess is that Sekulic will have complete control over all training and possibly selection.

George Cross will offer him a contract which will be implemented into a long term one provided that the initial agreement is satisfactory to both coach and club.

FOLLOW

Should this materialise his wife and family will follow.

It appears that Sekulic will be completely tied up with Soccer and is likely to be a full-time coach.

George Cross, making a strong bid for their first ever championship, will part company with their present coach John Hemmerling on the arrival of Sekulic.

But it is understood that Hemmerling was engaged with this in mind.

Once again George Cross, always to the forefront in planning for the big time, have shown their determination to bring one of the best Soccer brains in Europe to Melbourne.

Lions sign new player

Lions have acquired a useful player with the arrival from Scotland of wing half or full back Willie Hamilton.

Willie, 5 ft. 10 ins., joined Kilmarnock in 1959 from the crack amateur side Saxones, and was with the senior side three years before moving to England.

During his term with Kilmarnock, Willie played alongside Billy Cook the centre half now with Slavia.

HELLAS SPECIAL

Our story on the player Hellas were lucky to sign has been held over for a special 12-page issue featuring the South Melbourne Hellas Club, its players and committee in two weeks' time.

STAND ASIDE

Cop that, young Johnny... Hellas' Johnny Bedford appears to be getting a back-hander from J.U.S.T.'s dynamic little winger Tom Stankovic in their match at Olympic Park on Sunday. But Tom had his eyes and mind only on the ball — and Johnny was in the way! The other Hellas player is Tsolakes.

BARBECUE

Juventus are holding a barbecue this Saturday night at 7 Cecil St., Fitzroy. Don't miss it, you fans, and see the stars in action at Olympic Park on Sunday — Dieter Voigt and young di Marchi are at the peak of their form.

BIG DROP IN NSW CROWD

By MARTIN ASTON

Crowds are down badly at Sydney first division matches and local officials are worried about it.

And they well might be.

Some idea of to what extent our attendances have slumped can be gained from the fact that last Sunday's match between last year's premiers Apia and Pan Hellenic attracted a crowd of only 8,500 people.

The two clubs have easily the biggest following of any in the competition and the same figure in the last two years has attracted around 20,000 spectators.

And the week before only 8,300 people turned out to watch Apia in action against the then unbeaten competition leader St. George Budapest.

In each instance the day was a perfect one and there seemed to be no reason why each game should not attract a really big crowd.

What is causing such a frighteningly sharp decline?

Nobody seems to know for sure but most agree that the standard of play has fallen away to an alarming extent — into little more than a rough-house.

In last Sunday's big match Pan Hellenic centre forward Doug Logan was taken from the field with blood pouring from a cut over his eye which later required six stitches.

Another player suffered a facial gash and a third was knocked unconscious.

Actually the decline in attendance figures represents a falling away in support

Banned-but he's still there

JIM CONDOS, the Pan Hellenic supporter who was barred for life earlier this year, has not missed a match since the ban was applied by the N.S.W. Federation more than two months ago.

He told me this last Sunday after he had led the way in an amazing show of Greek enthusiasm after Pan Hellenic scored a shock 1-0 victory over last year's premier Apia.

"They will never stop me", he declared with emotion.

"I love the game of Soccer and I will continue to watch Pan Hellenic wherever the team is playing".

Condos and thousands of other supporters embraced and kissed the players as they left the ground after one of the roughest games of the season.

He somehow managed to get into the dressing room in the general excitement and later drank champagne with the players and officials at a big celebration at the Hellenic club.

The N.S.W. Federation has issued a picture of Condos along with a strict instruction to all of its clubs that under no circumstances is he to be admitted to any match.

But officials are finding it impossible to enforce such a ban.

"He looks just like any other Greek supporter and we have much more important things to do than to search the crowd looking for him", said an official of another club.

The whole affair has developed into a big joke.

Pan Hellenic are planning to make a tour of the East at the end of the season and there is a strong chance that Condos will be accompanying them.

FOUR years ago Tiko Yellavich arrived in Australia with four bottles of his favorite plum brandy and a large parcel of Yugoslavian salami.

And he was plunged to the depths of despair when Customs officials at Sydney's Mascot airport confiscated the salami.

But one thing which could not be taken away from him was an almost magical ability to win the respect of a struggling Soccer team and send it out on to the field with a definite plan and a surprising determination to fight for every ball.

BACKGROUND TO SOCCER

Yellavich did this when he took just one season to inspire Yugal to rise from the obscurity of the second division and win the Australian Cup.

And the way in which he did the impossible and at short notice produced an Australian team which shocked everybody by twice gaining a draw with Chelsea proved that he is in world class as a coach.

Chelsea's outspoken manager Tommy Docherty went on record as saying "Your officials are crazy if they do not give Yellavich a contract for a year or two to build up your Australian team."

And now he has done it again.

Last Saturday relegation threatened Hakoah caused the upset of the season by ending the unbeaten run of St. George Budapest with a 1-0 victory — little more than a week after Yellavich had signed a three-year contract with the club.

AT the moment Sydney's most excitable Soccer player, Johnny Giacometti of Apia, is the leading goal scorer of the competition.

He has scored 14 goals in nine matches to have a lead of three over South Coast's hard-running inside forward Graham Barnett.

Off the field Giacometti keeps to himself and rarely says a word to any of the other members of the Apia team.

But for some reason once he gets on to the ground he angrily disputes decisions by the referee

Leading goal scorers at present are: J. Giacometti (Apia) 14; G. Barnett (South Coast) 11; J. Galambos (Metro) 10; J. Watkiss (Apia) 7; K. Jaros (Apia) 6; A. Vicoevic (Yugal) 6; J. Warren (St. Geo. Budapest) 6; G. Yardley (St. Geo. Budapest) 6.

Morrie Buckner

says...

IT always annoys me to hear or read real or implied slanders about clubs, particularly those which accuse innocently progressive clubs of trading in players just for the purpose of making money.

Slavia has been attacked in this fashion, and now Sydney's "green paper" has run an article about Hakoah which carried the same slanderous inference — that the club is profiting by trading in players as though they are just pieces of merchandise.

It's a pity these so-called journalists don't check on the facts, then present them as a properly researched story. Neither the journalist nor the newspaper are doing their jobs unless both are prepared to publish THE WHOLE STORY, not one-sided scraps of nonsense that are apparently intended to create an unfair impression with the readers.

Under the misleading heading of "Hakoah's Sellout Creates Record", the writer names about 18 players that have been transferred by Hakoah. He fails to state that the transfers have been spread out over a period of THREE YEARS OR MORE. Nor does he mention the fact that at least seven of the players were transferred either on loan or without a fee to help teams in lower divisions. Nor does he say how many of the transfers were made merely to meet the wishes of the players involved.

He goes off the rails altogether by stating that Hakoah grossed between $4,000 and $5,000 for the players listed. The actual figure for the whole list was less than $2,500. Some were free transfers. Some were players on loan or exchange. Some, like Hans Peterson for instance, were also special cases. Hans went back to Wilhelmina over three years ago for the same fee as that paid for him.

But why on earth doesn't the writer tell the public what Hakoah has spent to lift the standard of Soccer in Victoria during the same three years? This club has invested many thousands of pounds in bringing players from the United Kingdom. Two, including Gerry Chaldi, were brought from other States. Only two were acquired locally — Johnny Walker from Moreland and Teddy Smith from Hellas.

Just look at this list of players from overseas — John O'Neill, Hugh Murray and his brother Gerald, Ken Waugh, Terry Hartley, Bobby Adams, Jim O'Neill, Eric Haynes, Billy McIvor, Alan Villers, Bill Rowley, Alan Stenhouse, Bill Latta, Alex Purdie, Bennie McQuillan, Tom Howlett, Ian McDonald, and David Smith. There are probably more — but isn't that enough?

And now is Hakoah faring now? Well, the senior team is in fifth position and is the "dark horse" of the State League. The Seconds are leading the Reserves League with 61 goals for and 15 against. The Thirds are leading the Open Age League with 68 goals for and 14 against after only eight rounds, and the runner-up in this league is Hakoah-Ajax. And Hakoah's Under 18's are leading their Junior League. All this sounds like a well-managed club, with club spirit commendably high.

IT'S a good team that can take a beating, learn a lesson from it, and put it to good use next time out.

Two weeks ago, Hellas was thrashed 3-1 by Juventus. One of the reasons for that defeat was the fact that too many of the Hellas players dithered and dribbled negatively every time they were in possession — which was never for long because of speedy tackling by Juventus.

Last Sunday against J.U.S.T., Hellas was a different team. The players never held the ball, but moved it swiftly in square, diagonal, long, short, and high passes. And, like Juventus, they tackled swiftly to "spoil" their opponents. Result — a most important win against a highly-rated side.

Best man afield was Johnny Anderson, back where he belongs at right half, from where he triggered most of the Hellas raids.

HELLAS richly deserved its win, so what follows here has no bearing on the result. Nor is it intended to tear referees apart. It is simply a plea for more consistency by referees in their rulings.

In Sunday's game at Olympic Park, J.U.S.T. was penalised unnecessarily on several occasions in several ways. Lou Stafrace pulled J.U.S.T. up twice for trying to get the advantage of quickly-taken free kicks, even though the players placed the ball down to make it the required "dead" ball. He also penalised J.U.S.T. by not implementing the "advantage rule" when its players came away from a foul with the ball.

Finally, he allowed Jimmy Pyrgolios to crowd Tommy Stankovic when Stankovic was taking corner kicks. Lou stopped Jimmy the first time, then allowed him to get away with it the second time.

THE day before, Slavia was similarly penalised by referee Tom Edwards during its game against George Cross. Then of course there was Mr. Edwards' highly debatable decision to disallow the goal scored by David Short. From where I saw the incident, no infringement had occurred either prior to or during the action that ended with the ball in the net.

The referees concerned may have good reasons for their decisions. Unfortunately, they are forbidden to discuss them with the press.

This can lead to unfair criticism of the men in the middle, and it would be an excellent thing if the Referees' Association were to appoint a spokesman to explain to the public the reasons for some of the referees' decisions, especially where these have been disputed or criticised.

by the New Australian supporters who have been carrying the code for years.

Actually, this could be a blessing in disguise.

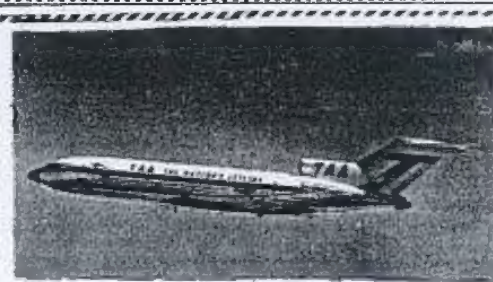

There is no chance of the "old Australian" Soccer supporter coming back to the game until every trace of foreign names is removed from the clubs and a man can take his wife and children to a match without fear of a riot taking place.

And perhaps the current trend could lead to more young Australian players getting a chance at the expense of the fifth-rate overseas players who are coming here at the moment.

MR EDGAR IS ALL FOR SOCCER

- An Englishman
- 37-year-old
- Married
- Has four sons
- Company secretary
- Former Army man
- Likes music
- Played Soccer.

Gerald Edgar, the 37-year-old Englishman, who was recently appointed secretary of the Victorian Soccer Federation, says Soccer has a big future here.

Mr. Edgar said yesterday "If nobody puts any effort into Soccer in Australia it will expand despite this. But if we all pull together and promote it, the game has the biggest future of any sport in the country."

Mr. Edgar is married with four sons. Their ages are: 4, 8, 12 and 16. He has been in Australia two years and comes from Crosby, Lancashire.

His local league teams were Everton and Liverpool and although he wasn't a regular supporter of these clubs he took an interest in them. As a boy Mr. Edgar played full back for his school and later in the Cameron Highlanders during National Service, he also played Soccer.

Mr. Edgar is a professional company secretary and lives in Preston.

He likes music and is a member of the Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Victoria.

He told Soccer News he was happy to serve Soccer and would like assistance from clubs during the next few weeks while he's settling down into his new job.

LET'S HAVE a rest awhile! J.U.S.T.'s centre forward Billy Rice and goalkeeper Marko Fode crash to the ground after Fode had saved the ball in a scrimmage at Olympic Park on Sunday.

J.U.S.T. in danger

By JIM COOK

J.U.S.T. could be in real danger of defeat when they meet Hakoah in a vital match at Middle Park on Sunday.

Hakoah by their recent performances, have shown they are not a side to be trifled with, and they have more mobility than the Footscray side.

Purdie and McIvor have settled in well on the wings, and with Murray and Stenhouse blending well with the dominating centre-half John O'Neill, Hakoah have emerged a top-class side.

They are now more tenacious and their never-give-in spirit will worry J.U.S.T.

But J.U.S.T. have potential match-winners in Rice, Mladenovic, Blue and Stonkovic, and if these four click the Footscray colors will be flying high on Sunday.

J.U.S.T.'s big problem is that at odd times they make the grave mistake of not fully emphasising their overall superiority.

My tip is J.U.S.T. — but only just!

SLAVIA v. S.M. HELLAS

Another top-line Saturday match at Olympic Park, which should go down well with the fans. Both sides, with plenty of talent in their ranks, are capable of turning on the type of Soccer that makes the sparks fly.

Slavia with their orthodox and calculating play will be opposed by a Hellas side which gambles to some extent on pressurized play with a flair for attacking straight from the kick-off.

In defence, Slavia are much stronger especially at wing half and full back. On the move in attack, both have opportunists — Laraman for Slavia and Mandalis for Hellas.

In a game that could swing either way I take Slavia to win.

JUVENTUS v. POLONIA

The all-powerful Juventus side will be an acid test for Polonia's sprinkling of juniors. And maturity combined with strength and experience invariably wins.

Another feature of Juventus is that nowadays they have considerable skill in their ranks and with their recent successes they ooze with confidence. New full back, Milton, looks a capture. Millar is in great form and Bell is rapidly establishing himself as one of our best inside forwards.

Polonia have potential in their side especially at full back where young players

Marmour and Cierpacz are getting excellent support and encouragement from Janczyk and Dudon.

In attack, however, the Poles fall down. And Juventus defence should bottle them up to win well.

CROATIA v. MELBOURNE

The one-all draw of the first game between this pair is not likely to repeat itself. Both are in a desperate position and an outright win is more on the cards.

Melbourne's sure-footed but decidedly overworked defence in which McGowan and Scott excel, will have their hands full with Croatia's breezy but so far unproductive attack. Mc-Meechan and Jotjak on form will take some holding and watching.

Although Croatia are shaky at full back and centre half, this is outweighed by Melbourne's listless attack. Croatia could snatch the points in a grim struggle.

TRIESTINA v. WILHELMINA

With a miserable goal solve his side's dramatic

Triestina hardly rate with Wilhelmmina, who despite being far from convincing are much more steady and better placed.

And the league placings are a fair indication of the overall difference in the sides. Triestina, with too little class in their side, are badly missing Del Fabro at centre half.

The brunt of their defensive play is borne mostly by Gross, who hardly gets a breather. And in attack only Menich the former Melbourne player looks likely.

Wilhelmmina, with players of the calibre of Hobson, Van Alphen, Pete Brouwer and Stoffels, should collect two easy points.

LIONS v. GEORGE CROSS

Punchless and dispirited for many weeks, Lions are at an all-time low. But they are bound to show some improvement very soon, however slight.

New coach Geoff Davies is aware of his task, but nothing short of a mammoth spending spree or the quick importation of several good players will turn of reverses.

HAKOAH

By JIM COOK

Hakoah are one of the oldest State League clubs in Australia, and they are one of the most successful.

Their success in recent years has not been spectacular, but they are slowly building up to be one of the forces in State League and this year could see them in the final four.

The Hakoah club was founded in 1927 by the late Jack Skolnik. In the early years they played on the Exhibition grounds, the old Olympic Park and Princess Park.

In 1956 they made their start at Middle Park, sharing an old tip with South Melbourne United.

£65,000 to be spent

Today, of course, Hakoah are joint tenants with Hellas of the magnificent remodelled Middle Park with its first class playing surface, concrete terracing, super stands and dressing rooms, catering and press facilities that go to make up any first class ground.

The remodelling and renovations at Middle Park are estimated to cost about £65,000.

It is a tribute to the Hakoah officials—and their Hellas counterparts—that they have persevered and pestered Senator Pat Kennelly and the Middle Park Trustees to make Middle Park what it is today.

What is not known to many people is that the Hakoah and Hellas clubs have had to make big sacrifices and guarantees to get where they are. And without Senator Kennelly and the Middle Park Trustees one shudders to think what the ground would be like. It's certain the clubs would have no hope of performing operation "Magic" without outside aid.

The road to the top for Hakoah has not been easy. During the war they merged with Moreland. Three times they were relegated to the second division, but each time they fought their way back to the top league.

Some of the outstanding players in the early days were Jack Skolnik, Ace Roth (captain for many years), Frank McIvor (now chairman of the Country Association), Nat Spicer, Alan Forest and Alby Meyer.

The club won senior league honours in 1934, 1935 and 1943. They won the Dockerty Cup in 1935, 1945, 1953, 1954 and 1956. The Reserves won the league in 1958, 1959 and 1960 as well as the Harry Armstrong Cup in 1956, 1958 and 1960.

Ace Roth, Ralph Piercy, Harry Rice, David McIntosh, Harry Sutherland, Tom Jack and Syd Thomas played for Victoria and Australia.

Four of the best

Four of the best ever to play for Hakoah were Aldo Vitti, Ace Roth, Milija Vesovic and Tom Jack.

As well as the senior side and reserves, Hakoah have always encouraged the juniors and at the moment have 120 boys of all age groups under their wing.

Mature products of their juniors still on their books are Sam Tarascio, Doug Rogers and Stan Jacobs.

They have a special section, too, in Hakoah-Ajax, whose current form and placing suggests they will be a valuable nursery side.

Night Soccer finalists this year, Hakoah faltered early in the current league program but with new talent plugging weak positions they have hoisted themselves well up the ladder and the future looks bright.

Their recent defeat of Juventus and draws with Hellas and George Cross suggest the Middle Parkers are back with a bang.

Former Israeli champion Gerry Chaldi is one of the powers in the Hakoah forward line. He is giving the side a lot of drive and his experience is a telling factor in Hakoah's improved form. Gerry is also coach of the young Hakoah-Ajax side.

Team one of the best now

Hakoah, after chopping and changing their team in the past few seasons, have now settled on a strong combination.

Here is their regular line-up:

John Walker — Scottish junior keeper with Clydebank Juniors, who was transferred from Moreland.

Bill Latto — Scottish junior full back who has played both centre-half and wing half.

Ken Waugh — A "Geordie" from Newcastle who had senior experience with Newcastle and Hartlepool United.

Hugh Murney — Wing half who had senior experience with Morton and Queen of the South in Scotland.

John O'Neil — The former Preston North End and Barrow centre-half who has representative honors for his native Ireland.

Alan Stenhouse — Wing half and utility player. Previously with Motherwell and Cowdenbeath.

Alec Purdie — Right winger who has been around the senior teams with Stirling Albion, Arbroath and English non-leaguers Poole Town.

Gerry Chaldi — The former Hakoah (Sydney) player in his second season in Melbourne and striking his best form now.

Teddy Smith — The only Australian in the side. Played for Australia in the Olympic Games in Melbourne. Formerly with Moreland and Hellas.

James O'Neill — A recent acquisition. An Irishman and a centre forward who played with Sunderland and Walsall. Represented Ireland.

Billy Melvor — Drafted to the left wing berth since the departure of Keenan. Played with Kilmarnock and Dumbarton.

Bill Rowley — Top-scorer in the 1965 night Soccer. A centre forward who comes from Falkirk.

Ian McDonald — Former Port Vale and Third Lanark, goalkeeper.

Hullo ... I'm here

Hakoah had planned for months to bring top centre-forward Jim O'Neill from Britain.

But when he arrived in Melbourne recently, he took the club by surprise. No-one was at the airport to meet him, because he had not told the club he was coming.

A Commonwealth Immigration official brought him to the city and club team manager Fred Hutchison quickly took him under his wing.

NEW BLOOD AS LIFTED HAKOAH

A new full back, George Smith, formerly of Mor-n and Third, Lanark, rises this week to join Hakoah. This is another move by the Hakoah management to leave no stone unturned to provide a side equal to the best.

His reformation of Hakoah over the past two years has been an eye-opener. No one has been spared to act and recruit the best-class player.

He has only to reflect back to 1963 when only a few players separated from the club and Croatia, who were relegated.

Any of the older hands left Middle Park either through transfer or been dropped. Dissatisfaction at the in and out of the club was the main reason for the mass departures.

Now players who have formed the side, now ready for a jump into the new era are: Johnny Walker, O'Neill, Alec Furdie, Hugh Chaldi, Hugh Murray, Bill McIvor and Jim Hill.

Australian-born Ted Smith has made a comeback to the Hakoah team with a vengeance. He was dropped last year when he could not fit into the forward line. Now he is one of the team's most consistent players.

Mr. Hakoah

No story on Hakoah would be complete without paying a special tribute to Mr. Hakoah himself — a well-known figure in many top sports, Kurt Defris.

Kurt has held the reins as Secretary-Manager of the club for the past 16 years.

As well as Soccer, the Hakoah Sports Club caters for cricket, ice-hockey, tennis and athletics. And in all these they have first-class facilities.

HAKOAH BALL

Hakoah will hold their annual ball at the Southern Cross on July 3. This is a great night all supporters will not want to miss.

Men at the top are on the ball

One of Hakoah's strongest points has always been their officials. Hakoah are one of the few clubs with a black bank balance, when most clubs are in the red.

Here are the club officials:

Chairman: Norman Simon.

President: Dr. Henry Baytch (past five years).

Vice-Presidents: Charles Ray (Chairman Metro Disciplinary Committee), Stan Handelsman, Sam Erlich.

Secretary-Manager: Kurt Defris.

Treasurer: Reno Kaufman.

Elsfielder, Hans Strohs, Mike Novak, Isaac Rauchberg, Sam Drezney, Isaac Spiegel (Chairman, Hakoah-Ajax), Mike Chapman, Victor Gross (Asst. # This must stop!

SOME supporters are bad sportsmen judging by the disgusting exhibition at one first division game last Saturday.

Dandenong players were hailed with stones by irate fans after their match.

It was a fast and exciting game with Makedonia having most of the play, but fine defensive work by Fletcher, Mally and Galloway kept them at bay. The important goal was scored by Brian Holcombe from 15 yards, only two minutes from time.

Although I think Makedonia will beat Oakleigh this Saturday, they will have to get their forward line working to improve their goal average.

Alexander, following their easy win over Moreland, should continue their winning way over the inconsistent Box Hill and stay favorites for the State League next year.

Even though Moonsee Ponds had a good win at home to Athens last week, Dandenong should prove too strong for them after their fine win over Makedonia.

Athens look too strong for Moreland who seem booked for the second division next season.

Both the Coburg v. Sunshine City and Sandringham v. Austria matches should be close. I would not be surprised to see two draws here.

SECOND DIVISION

St. Albans, who have their eyes firmly set on the State League within three years, have reached the top of the ladder.

Their recent spending on such players as Kurt Beinroth, (ex-Lions) appears to have paid dividends. However, they haven't been scoring well and will be hard pushed to beat Brighton.

The young Springvale side following their upset win over Ferntree Gully should improve their promotion chances with a win over Libertas.

Ringwood have improved their position in the last two weeks with wins of 6-2 and 7-1 over lowly Park Rangers. But I do not think they will find Ferntree Gully such easy opposition despite last week's set back.

My tip, a return to form and a win for Ferntree Gully.

The University boys have always been fighters and their clash with Richmond could end in a draw.

The fight against relegation is as close as the tussle for promotion, and this week sees the bottom four clubs battle it out in what could decide relegation for this season.

Park Rangers, despite home ground advantage should find Prahran too tough, Prahran having consolidated their position with a narrow win over Bayswater last week.

As for the Bayswater v. South Yarra clash, I'm tipping Bayswater. They have fighting qualities as proved in last year's battle to avoid relegation from Division 1. But only a goal is likely to separate them.

THIRD DIVISION

Highlight of the Third Division clashes this week is the meeting of the top four clubs.

Ajax appear to be the form horses, and it's good to see a club get promotion one year, and then be in the running for promotion in a higher grade the next.

Metropolitan Round-up with MARTIN HARRIS

They should pip Trident in a close game, but I wouldn't be surprised to see a draw here.

Frankston who have only given away 7 goals in 13 games, have easily the best defence on the ladder, and for this reason I tip them to beat Altona.

The remaining games although having little bearing in the promotion race should be interesting.

Essendon, despite their recent signing of Vin Gillies, from Box Hill, and their possible captures of some ex-State League players, will find it hard to climb back into the promotion race. They should, however, overcome Heidelberg without much difficulty.

Moorabbin and F.N.D. should be a close struggle with Moorabbin favorites to regain some of their lost prestige.

I.C.I. haven't gained a point so far this year, but I will stick my neck out and say they will gain at least a draw at Northcote.

FOURTH DIVISION

Hercules confirmed their mortgage on the premiership flag with a well-deserved 8-0 win over Airport West, and will keep their unbeaten record against Tullamarine this Saturday.

If any clubs have news items regarding Metropolitan Soccer, or particulars on games of the preceding Saturday, they should contact me at 63 9561, or after hours at Seaford 6 1295.

J.U.S.T. JUSTICE - FLOP

JIM COOK reviews Sunday's big game.

J.U.S.T. 1, S.M.HELLAS 2

The skilful but unproductive J.U.S.T. lost two valuable points to a Hellas side which seized their second-half chances at Olympic Park on Sunday.

And the responsibility lay with the J.U.S.T. inside forwards especially who failed to capitalize on the smart leading up work of the side.

For the first 20 mins. it was mostly Hellas with Boulias Kamboropolous splitting the J.U.S.T. defence with opening after opening.

On at least two occasions the promising but immature 17-year-old left winger of Hellas, Damianakos was presented with gilt edged chances to score. But with the goal at his mercy he showed his weakness to miss badly.

J.U.S.T. got a grip of the game and with attacking half back play went on the offensive. They appeared most unlucky to have a penalty claim denied in the 23rd min. when Anderson tugged and nudged Mladenovic in the penalty area.

Referee Straface waved play on evidently applying the advantage rule but Mladenovic still on his feet was off balance for his parting shot which was diverted past for a corner.

Fourteen minutes later justice was served when Roussis brought down Blue and Van der Peel made no mistake to score from the spot to put J.U.S.T. ahead.

J.U.S.T. took the initiative and running of the game which they maintained for some time after the half way mark. But futile attempts to find position and follow up by the inside forwards lost them chances of increasing their lead.

Hellas struck back in 56 minutes when Pygrollis from near the corner flag position, whipped over a picture cross for Mandalis to head home. Fifteen minutes later Johnny Anderson drove in a shot which Fode could only palm out. The waiting Pygrollis made no mistake to score from close range.

Despite some belated attempts by J.U.S.T. in the remaining stages, Hellas stood firm to clinch a surprise win.

J.U.S.T. were best served by Fode, Morgan, Rice and Blue.

For Hellas, Kamboropolous was the mainspring of their attacks with many astute moves. He was well supported in front by Ackrley. In defence Service and Bedford took the eye.

Second round of the cup competition in all age groups will be played this weekend.

VOIGT JOINS JUVENTUS

DEITER VOIGT, the brilliant Lions goalkeeper, has joined Juventus in a straight cash deal.

IS THIS A RECORD?

Does Alan Villiers' nine goals last week against Triestina Reserves constitute an individual record in this competition?

The lack of figures and records down the years is hard to check on.

If any reader has recollections of this being bettered then let me know at 33 0421 (day) or 329 7582 (evening).

IN TROUBLE for a keeper against Hakoah with Gross emphatic on a transfer, Triestina president, Bruno Tessari coaxed the 32-year-old former Fiorentina goalie, Frank Carli to take the position between the sticks. Frank, who has been in retirement for two years, put up a first-class display and couldn't be faulted for any of the goals.

ERNIE ACKERLEY, the Hellas forward, will soon be joining the car salesman's ranks in Melbourne. He will be taking up this work following the advice of another successful car salesman also a keen Hellas man — Charles Musker.

JOHNNY BEDFORD has regained form and is playing well at left half for Hellas following a long lay off. He's now one of the club's outstanding players.

And I believe the figure was around the £800 mark.

After lengthy negotiations, the future of the 26-year-old German-born keeper is secure.

Originally, talks between the two clubs suggested that an exchange deal would take place.

The names of former Box Hill forward, Noel Kenny and veteran centre half, Rocky Frangigione, had been mentioned in this connection.

TO GIVE an idea of the faith some of our sponsor's have in our game, Cedal products are presenting two prizes each week to listeners to 3KZ's "Soccer Round-up" every Saturday at 6.15 p.m. Each week questions will be asked from stories appearing in the current issue of Soccer News. Fred Villiers, Jim Usher, Martin Harris and, of course, yours truly, give you all the week-end gossip and official results. Haven't heard it? Why not tune in next Saturday evening.

HELLAS players have been promised a trip to Greece if they win the 1965 championship. That's something to strive for, isn't it?

REMEMBER I told you a week ago about the player with cleanest boots in the game who was looking for a transfer from Makedonia? Well, he got it! Sandy Wilson has now joined Wilhelmnia as a right winger and I'd say it won't be long before president Mr. van Hobbelen finds a place for him in the first team. This player has a great potential.

EMERY Bihary, Melbourne player, now studying law at Monash University, has been chosen in the University team to represent Australia in New Zealand but it is unlikely he'll go as he will be busy with exams when the team leaves.

SOCCER has a FIRST at last! Heard on ABC news this week that Aussie Rules will play Under-12's matches during half-time of big footy games at the M.C.G. Now don't tell me they dreamed this one up on their own. Oh, no! We've been playing junior curtain raisers at Olympic Park for years. COPY CATS!!

MIKE DE BRUYCKERE, former playing coach of Lions, wants to transfer to second division club Ringwood United.

BOULIS KAMBOUROPOULOS, Hellas inside right, is doing well in his English studies and works at the Motor Registration Branch.

HUBB VLUGELS, Wilhelmnia left or right half back, is looking for a transfer.

THAT knock on the knee Nigle Shepherd received when representing Australia against Chelsea at Olympic Park was more serious than it looked. Slavia's doctor told him he couldn't play against Croatia recently.

RUMOR is that Bill Curran will be leaving Hellas as team manager. He's done a mighty job at Middle Park and if he goes the club will miss him. Jim Davies is assistant Hellas coach now.

JIMMY PYRGOLIOS, Hellas right wing, is considered one of the best wingers in Australia. He's also a real gentleman on the ground and often picks the ball up when it is out of touch and takes it over to his opponent. Good manners on the ground are catching.

TAKIS MANDARAKIS, captain and left back of Hellas, who played with Pan Athinaikos and came here in 1962, has married and settled well in Australia. He's a telephone technician with the P.M.G.

PITY Tony Koach with his new post as State League chairman. Look back into the history of the appointment. The league has had more chairmen than George Cross have had coaches. Frankly it's a shocking job and nobody wants it. It's one of those jobs which has no future. WHATEVER YOU DO, YOU CAN'T WIN!

ANDREW ROUSSIS, the 23-year-old Hellas star centre half, is proving a great mine host at his club above the Greek Community Building at the corner of Russell and Lonsdale Sts., City. After every Hellas match, players, supporters and friends gather there for refreshments and snooker.

NICE to see Johnny Anderson taking such a keen interest in South Melbourne Hellas Under 16's. Last week it was encouraging to see players Ernie Ackersley, Mike Mandalis, Johnny Bedford and Sam Service giving him a hand with junior coaching at Middle Park.

BANG in the middle of a crisis, Triestina received another set back when ace keeper, Ernie Grosz requested a transfer. And despite their plight, Bruno Tessari the club president has agreed to listen to offers for the player. I see a quick ending to this move as at least two State League clubs are almost certain to make a bid for this talented goalie. The 29-year-old Grosz, since coming to Australia eight years ago, has played for Bundapest (Adelaide), Melbourne-Hungaria and Budapest (Sydney), before joining Triestina last year. Ernie played for South Australia against Hears in 1959 and also represented Victoria this season against waiting Russian side Mos.

● It takes a lot to stop J.U.S.T. forward Archie Blue when he has the ball at his feet. And Sunday at Olympic Park was no exception.

THIS WINGER IS A WINNER

WHILE clubs are scrambling over themselves in a race to get overseas players it amazes me that the talents of Mangopolous, the youthful Alexander right winger, appear to have been unnoticed.

I watched this winger on several occasions last season while he was playing State League Soccer and saw enough to be convinced that this 18-year-old has what it takes to make the top grade with a top side.

A protegy of Tommy Anderson, the former Hellas player, Mangopolous won many juniors honors.

Nicely built for winger, he's exceptionally fast, possesses good ball control and shows simplicity in keeping to the touchline or cutting in as the occasion arises.

I predict a big future for this boy if he gets the chance and support so essentially needed to develop his play and style.

ENVER BEGOVIC, honorary president of Croatia, made a forecast last week that his team would beat Polonia — AND THEY DID! He also said at the time that the club would finish in the top eight this season. And with all the talent in the club, I think he's right on the ball!

BRUCE TUCK, former Victorian Federation Junior treasurer, handed his books and balance sheet into Soccer House when he resigned last year. Big question now is "Where are they?" A search last week failed to find any trace of them!

WHAT did Triestina prove with all that nonsense last week about not wanting to play because one of their players was suspended? Nothing, only the usual bad publicity for Soccer. Thank goodness one man, Bruno Tessari, had the intelligence to pull the team together. Clubs with this kind of attitude should certainly not be in the State League or in any Soccer league for that matter. Had this on-again, off-again attitude not been adopted there would have been a much larger crowd at Middle Park. And who really suffered? Hakoah, of course, the home team.

TWO YEARS has meant a lot of changes in the Juventus camp. Looking back at an old match report of the Hakoah-Juventus game on June 2, 1963, only Millar and Harbaza retain their present day places. Others still on the Italian sides' books who were in the 1963 line-up are: Terry Hartley (recovering from an appendicitis operation), Rocky Frangione and Noel Kenny.

WHAT'S WRONG with Lions? They've got a good ground, a fair team — but no team spirit. An official said yesterday: "The only way for Lions to improve is to go down this year. The committee will then open their eyes."

SANDRINGHAM goalie Bill Grubb, former Falkirk, Scottish player, is on the transfer list. The club will consider exchanging him for a goal-scoring centre forward or inside forward. Interested? Phone secretary Geoff Dobb, 77 4307.

WE do have some nice blokes in our game. This week Harry van Vargas, former Hellas goalie who runs a men's wear shop at 233 Russell St., City, presented retiring Federation secretary Stuart Beaton with a gift. Harry has retired from active Soccer but he's now coaching fourths division club Hercules — and they haven't lost a game since he took over. Good on you Harry!
